Important Announcement!

Mr. Beard, the buyer for this immense concern, is in Chicago this week buying goods for almost every department in the house. He has gone there as well prepared as any one could be to buy the best and the most up-to-date merchandise to fit your needs for this Fall and Winter. We are buying our Fall and Winter goods much earlier this year than ever before on account of the indications that prices on all lines of merchandise are going to advance abnormally and so we have grasped time by the forelock in sending our buyer to one of the largest markets in the United States to take advantage of the prices. If this war, that is in progress in Europe at present, continues for any length of time and our foreign trade relations do not take on a different aspect, the prices on many lines of merchandise are going to be beyond reason, and we have thought of all these things in considering our interests as well as your own. We will announce to you later the date of our Fall opening, and, trusting that our goods and prices will merit a goodly portion of your patronage this Fall and Winter, we beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

B. F. BEARD & CO., HARDINSBURG, KY.

The traffic department of the L. H. & St. L. R. R. Company is sending out with compliments a handy pocket map of the war zone. It gives one an understanding of the war news and at the same time reminds him of the excellent daily package car service right at his own door. While he thinks of the war abroad, he is able to appreciate what it means to have good times and a good railroad at home. Much of the railroad service in Germany has been completely destroyed.
